Tramadol 50mg is categorized as an opioid analgesic, which is a class of prescription painkillers. It is mostly used to treat moderate to fairly severe pain, effectively relieving patients with a variety of ailments, including as arthritis, post-operative pain, and some forms of chronic pain.